

10-16-88

11.2.

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

11.2. 108

Dear and dear friend I am glad to hear of your visit there.

I am sure you will find the atmosphere of the place just what you need for the time.

Whether a permanent home has been found is not a matter of importance to me.

If there should be any difficulty in coming to that, we might try to do it in a different way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

I am sure the same result
could be achieved in a different
way.

improved copy

L. M. J.

Rensselaer Indian
October 6 1888.

My dear Miss Daniel
The Provincial of the Fathers of the Redemptorists, Blood and Pearl with us till yesterday but after he left he sent me the enclosed letter which I hasten to transmit to you. The Provincial misunderstood me about a Religious Order. But the letter shows what he thinks.
I have tried just now with Fathers Anthony and one of his Fathers who is a Redemptorist that even this he has misunderstood me and explained it to me.

Father and student well qualified to teach if we wish them.

I write this to you and send the letter of Father Provincial that you may know the case.

Probably arrangements have been made to get a Benedictine Father from Pennsylvania.

If there should be any difficulty in regard to that, we might try to get one of these.

I suppose the reason Father Provincial writes confidentially to me (which confidence I do not intend to betray by sending his letter to you) is he would not like to have it known that he asks any place, also that he says that two Religious Orders might not agree together.

There is nothing else in his letter which is a sufficient reason to make it confidential.

I feel exceedingly thankful to you and your good Sisters, not alone for your visit but also for all that you have done for us. The Sisters also join me in this as well as wishes and prayers for your welfare.

Sister
Cecilia requests me to say that she has just read your letter and will comply with your request as soon as all the things now at the depot are brought out here so she can do so. She thanks you for your kind letter.

Father Stephen is here.

With best wishes and prayers

I remain

Yours truly in X<sup>te</sup>

George L. Williams